The definition of income includes:

- *Unemployment Compensation
- *Worker's Compensation
- *Retirement Benefits
- *Welfare
- *Pensions
- *Wages
- *Social Security
- *Child Support
- *Self Employment

Please check yes or no in each of the following four categories and sign at the bottom.

Northern Arizona Academy District Acceptable Use Policy

A. Purpose

1. Northern Arizona Academy is providing employees, students and invited guests with access to the District's electronic communication system (District System), which may include Internet access. This District System includes (but not limited to) computers, related hardware, software, education networks, Internet and any future additions. This access is a privilege and shall not be considered a right to any individual or group. Guests require the invitation from a member of the management team (Director, Asst. Director, Education Director or Technology Coordinator) or Site Manager.
2. The District System has a limited educational purpose. The District System is to assist in preparing students for success in life and work in the 21st Century by providing them with electronic access to a wide range of curriculum related information.
3. Users may not use the District System for commercial purposes, defined as offering or providing goods or services or purchasing goods or services for personal use. District acquisition policies will be forwarded for district purchase of goods or services through the District System. Any expenses incurred by violation of this section will be the responsibility of the user and parents of minor users.
4. Users may not use the District System for political lobbying.
5. The term "educational purposes" includes use of the system for classroom activities, professional or career development and limited to high-quality self-discovery activities. Users will limit their use of the system for self-discovery purposes to those available times free from academic and administrative needs of self and others.

B. Acceptable Use Policy

1. Personal Safety
 - A. Users will not post personal contact information about themselves or other people. Personal contact information includes address, telephone, school address, work address, etc. Administrative exceptions may be made such as required forms and workshop registration.
 - B. Users will not agree to meet with someone they have met online without their parent's approval and participation. Administrative exceptions may be made in the interest of job performance.
 - C. Users will promptly disclose to their teacher or other school employee any message they receive or site that is inappropriate or makes them feel uncomfortable. This information shall be put in writing with details and site URL and forwarded through the Site Manager to the Technology Coordinator for appropriate action.
2. Illegal Activities
 - A. Users will not attempt to gain unauthorized access to the District System or to any other computer system through the District System or go beyond their authorized access. This includes attempting to log in through another person's account or access another person's files. These actions are illegal, even if only for the purpose of browsing.

- B. Users will not make deliberate attempts to disrupt the computer system performance or destroy data by spreading computer viruses or by any other means. These actions are illegal.
- C. Users will not use the District System to engage in any illegal act, such as arranging for a drug sale or the purchase of alcohol, engaging in criminal gang activity, threatening the safety of a person, etc.

3. System Security

- A. Users are responsible for the use of their individual account and should take all reasonable precautions to prevent others from being able to use their account. Under no conditions should a user provide his/her password to another person.
- B. Users will immediately notify their teacher or other school employee if they have identified a possible security problem. Users will not demonstrate possible security problems to other students. Users will not go looking for security problems because this may be construed as an illegal attempt to gain access. This information shall be put in writing with details and forwarded through the Site Manager to the Technology Coordinator for appropriate action.
- C. Users will avoid the inadvertent spread of computer viruses by not moving files or disks between computers without specific help from an authorized technician.

4. Inappropriate Language

- A. Restrictions against inappropriate language apply to public messages, private messages and material posted on Web pages.
- B. Users will not use obscene, profane, lewd, vulgar, rude, inflammatory, threatening or disrespectful language.
- C. Users will not post information that, if acted upon, could cause damage or a danger of disruption.
- D. Users will not engage in personal attacks, including prejudicial or discriminatory attacks.
- E. Users will not harass another person. Harassment is persistently acting in a manner that distresses or annoys another person. If a user is told by a person to stop sending messages, he/she must stop.
- F. Users will not knowingly or recklessly post false or defamatory information about a person or organization.

5. Respect for Privacy

- A. Users will not repost a message that was sent to them privately without the permission of the person who sent them the message.
- B. Users will not post private information about any person.

6. Respecting Resource Limits
 - A. Users will use the system only for educational and professional development activities and limited high-quality self discovery activities. Users will limit their use of the system for self discovery purposes to those available times free from academic and administrative needs of self and others.
 - B. Users will not download any files unless absolutely necessary and have received Site Manager permission. Users may not add any files or software or make any changes to the District System.
 - C. Users will not post chain letters or engage in “spamming”. Spamming is sending an annoying or unnecessary message to a large number of people.
 - D. Users with e-mail privileges will check their e-mail frequently, delete unwanted messages promptly and stay within their e-mail quota.
 - E. No user shall participate in Telenet, FTP, newsgroups, mail lists, chat rooms or similar type activities unless specifically required within their e-mail quota.
7. Plagiarism and Copyright Infringement
 - A. Users will not plagiarize works that they find on the Internet. Plagiarism is taking the ideas or writings of others and presenting them as if they were original to the user.
 - B. Users will respect the rights of copyright owners. Copyright infringement occurs when an individual inappropriately reproduces a work that is protected by a copyright. If a work contains language that specifies acceptable use of that work, the user should follow the expressed requirements. If the user is unsure whether or not he/she can use a work, he/she should request permission from the copyright owner.
8. Inappropriate access to material
 - A. Users will not use the District System to access material that is profane or obscene (pornography), that advocates illegal acts, that advocates violence or discrimination towards other people (hate literature). For students, a special exception may be made for hate literature if the purpose of such access is to conduct research and access is approved by both the teacher and the parent. District employees may access the above material only in the context of legitimate research.
 - B. If a user inadvertently/mistakenly accesses such information, he/she should immediately tell a teacher or other District employee. This may protect users against an allegation that they have intentionally violated the District Acceptable Use Policy. This information shall be put in writing with details and site URL and forwarded through the Site Manager to the Technology Coordinator for appropriate action.
 - C. Your parent(s)/guardian(s) should instruct you if there is additional material that they think it would be inappropriate for you to access. The District fully expects that you will follow your parent(s)/guardian(s) instructions in this matter.

C. Access to the System

1. The District's Acceptable Use Policy, set forth in Section "B", will govern all use of the District System. The Student Handbook will also govern student use of the system. District policy, local, county, state and federal regulations will also govern employee, student and invited guest use.
2. District employees, students and invited guests may have access to the Internet through the District's networked computers after appropriate completion of Account Agreements. Parents may specifically request that their child(ren) not be provided such access by notifying the District in writing and/or on the Account Agreement.
3. Individual e-mail accounts for students and invited guests will not be allowed at this time due to limited resources. This includes excluding access to personal sign-ons and accounts from the District System.
4. Individual e-mail accounts for District employees will be allowed as needed for the performance of their jobs and at other times not interfering with their job duties.
5. No users shall participate in Telnet, FTP, newsgroups, mail lists, chat rooms or similar type activities unless specifically required by their job responsibilities.
6. The District will acquire software and/or hardware designed to block access or filter certain sites. Such blocking and filtering will be guided by current academic needs as determined by the Management Team and current laws.

D. District Limitation of Liability

1. The District makes no warranties of any kind, either express or implied, that the functions or the services provided by or through the District system will be error-free or without defect. The District will not be responsible for any damage users may suffer, including but not limited to, loss of data or interruptions of service. The District is not responsible for the accuracy or quality of the information obtained through or stored on the system. The District will not be responsible for financial obligations arising through the unauthorized use of the system.
2. The District reserves the right to update the Internet, Computer and Equipment Usage Policy, the District Acceptable Use Policy, and the Account Agreements at any time without notice to all users.

E. Due Process

1. The District will cooperate fully with local, county, state and federal officials in any investigation concerning to or relating to any illegal activities conducted through the District System.
2. In the event there is an allegation that a student has violated the District Acceptable Use Policy, the staff will follow normal due process as outlined in Guidelines for Student Behavior as provided in the Student Handbook.
3. Disciplinary actions will be tailored to meet specific concerns related to the violation and to assist the student in gaining the self-discipline necessary to behave appropriately on an electronic network.
4. Employee and invited guest violations of the District Acceptable Use Policy will be handled in accord with District policy, local, county, state and federal regulations.

5. Any District administrator (Site Manager or Member of the Management Team) may terminate the account privileges of a guest user by providing notice to the user. Any user account not active for more than thirty (30) days may be removed along with the user's files without notice to the user.
6. Unauthorized users of the District System may be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

F. Search and Seizure

1. System users have a limited privacy expectation in the contents of their personal files on the District System. However, these files should be removed as soon as possible.
2. Routine maintenance and monitoring of the system may lead to discovery that the user has or is violating the District Acceptable Use Policy, Guidelines for Student Behavior or the law.
3. An individual search will be conducted if there is reasonable suspicion that a user has violated the law or the Guidelines for Student Behavior. The nature of the investigation will be reasonable and in context of the nature of the alleged violation.
4. District employees should be aware that their personal files are discoverable under these same conditions.

Open Campus Permission Slip

As Legal guardian of _____, I give permission for my son or daughter to leave campus during the lunch break. I have spoken with my child regarding the responsibilities of his or her actions while off campus. We acknowledge that this is a release time for the student and that they are responsible for their own actions. We also acknowledge that the privilege can and will be revoked if misused.
